

What is Arlington Farm Tour Weekend?

Arlington Farm Tour weekend is an event where local farms will be hosting open houses, events, and activities, for people to come and visit their farm. This event is meant to raise awareness for local produce and meat farmers so that more people are able to support and buy food from their friends and neighbors. This is beneficial to our health, local economy, environment, and community.

Arlington Farmers Market

The Farmers Market is a great way for people to support local farmers by purchasing their produce. This helps support local small businesses and build community.
